The name Geshagesic probably translates as "Morning Sun" or "Whirling Sky" in Ojibway/Oji-Cree. Although I do not have any written record of this name, my great aunt Ethel Benoit (Finlayson), granddaughter of John and Angelique, told me that was Angelique's "Indian" name. The name "Ikwens" is found in several documents related to John Finlayson^{4,3,2,1} and his wife Angelique, "Ikwes" is the Ojibway suffix for woman. Her Headstone has her Indian name as Shebagijig, died April 12, 1910.*

* Isador Desmulons¹ b. 1821, Frenchman from Quebec, is the non-Native origin of the Desmulons surname at Pic River, Mobert and the surrounding area. Various spellings have been recorded, Desmulon, Desmoulins, Desmoulin, Desmoulons, but they are probably the same family on these reserves. Noel Samuel Desmulons must have died around 1890 because according to the Ontario Census records of 1891 his son Ellis, also known as Felix was listed as 6 years old and living with John Finlayson and his wife. Ten years later in 1901 there was a Narcisse, Ignace and Felix (Ellis) living in Angelique Finlayson's (John Finlayson's widow at this time) house, listed as adopted. Angelique Marie (Mary) Finlayson, their mother, died in 1889. There is a mention of Narcisse and Felix (Ellis) in one of the letters sent to John Finlayson from his Scottish father Nicol Finlayson in Narin Scotland as well.

Ten Children Below

* According to the Indian Affairs Treaty Paylist records for Nick Finlayson^{5,4,3,2,1}, Jane was transferred from John Anango's¹ Paylist "Ticket" when she married Nicol in 1885, to Nicol's Paylist Ticket at Pic River. John Anango¹ was her first husband, even though they were separated by 40 years in age. Nicol's first wife was Elizabeth Anango, John Anango's¹ daughter. Jane was a widow when she married Nicol, who was a widower after Elizabeth Anango^{2,1} died. There is a record of a Jane Souliere, Indian, living at Pic River in 1861, age 1 year, daughter of an Antoine Souliere Sr^{2,1} and Mary Louisa Souliere, Indian with 7 siblings (Ontario/Algoma Census of 1861). That would put her age at 25 when she married Nicol in 1885. The Souliere family goes way back to the 1700s, one of the many Voyager families intermarrying with native women. Antoine Souliere^{2,1} parents were Jean Baptiste Souliere¹ and Angelique Bousquet, they may have been born in the USA, LaPoint, WI and living in Garden River. Census indicates Indian (possibly coming from the La Pointe, Wisconsin area originally). Souliere surname has been in Sault Ste. Marie/Garden River since at least 1818. Furthermore, I have seen various spellings of Jane Souliere's surname, Soulier, Souliere and Soulieres.

The Michano Family

A word about name spellings. I am using the spellings as they appear in the original documents. As time passed the spellings of names changed which is reflected here. Also, names in brackets and parenthesis are maiden names where indicated or traditional Ojibway names. The source of the Michano surname is still unknown, however there is a record of an Indian at Pic River named Mishinnor, b. 1837, age 34 in the 1871 Ontario Census for Pic River. He had a wife, name unknown, age 25, b. 1846, two daughters at the time, names and ages unknown, and a son, six months old in 1871, name unknown. This predates any Michano, or Meshango, or Mishano listings in other sources, including Father William Maurice's genealogy records for Pic River.

According to genealogy records from Fr. William Maurice of Thunder Bay, ONT, the Michano family name can be traced as far back as Pierre or Peter Michano Sr. Parents unknown. I have done searches in various Ontario census databases and the name Michano or Mishano never comes up prior to the Michanos at Pic River. This leads me to conclude that the surname Michano is likely the English version of an original Ojibway name, the most likely being the name "Meshango", translation unknown, which was recorded as Louis Michano's last name on a Treaty Pay List record for Robert Michano Sr. It is likely that Pierre Michano Sr. had a sister listed as Jane Michano {Motens}, {Omotens}, or {Modens}. Nothing is known about her or the name variations. Her birth and death dates are unknown as of now. She was Baptised on July 2, 1876. She married a John Minawasinons on probably the same date as her baptism. John Minawasinons was born in 1846, parents unknown.

Pic River, Heron Bay, Montizambert, and Pic Mobert

The name Pic Mobert has been in use since the early 1970s. Pic is in reference to the Pic River and the Heron Bay Band because in the late 1800s several families from Pic River/Heron Bay separated to form a new band on White Lake near Montizambert. Montizambert was the name of the original settlement along the CPR Mainline at White Lake. It had been shortened to Mobert in 1945. In 1971, Mobert was proclaimed a reserve under the Indian Act. It was at this time that the Band settled on Pic Mobert as its new name. Today there are families with common surnames and ancestors on both reserves.

Children of Robert Michano^{3,2,1} and Angnes Michano (nee Finlayson^{6,5,4,3,2,1})

Agnes had a son before Doris, father unknown. According to Fa. Maurice's records his name was Dominique Olivier Finlayson, b. May 26, 1816. Family recalls a boy named "Oliver". No record yet of when he died, but younger half brother Robert Michano (Jr) recalls that he died when he was a small boy. The records I have only state that Robert Michano (Sr) was not his father. Nonetheless, this is at odds with Doris's birth date just 6 months later.*

* We have not been able to locate a birth certificate for Doris. Her death cert records her birth date as Nov. 27, 1916. Given that Agnes had a boy, Oliver, on May 26, 1916, this is impossible. Furthermore, her marriage certificate lists her as 18 years old on Dec. 3, 1936, which would mean she was born in 1918, not 1916. One or both of these documents are incorrect. I suspect she lied about her age in order to get married. Agnes and Robert Michano married in 1921. Perhaps Doris was born before they were married, perhaps in 1920. If this were true, then she was only 16 in 1936, thus she needed to add two years on her marriage certificate, which would mean she was really 45, not 47 when she died on Feb. 28, 1964. However, some family members recall that she was born in 1916 and that "Oliver" was born after her.
